2016 Annual Dinner/Meeting

Tue., Dec. 6, 2016 • Chimney Rock Inn, 342 Valley Rd., Gillette
 Dinner at 6pm, Annual Meeting at 8pm

Greetings Fellow Folk Project members,

All Folk Project members are invited to attend and participate in our upcoming Annual Meeting on Tuesday, December 6, at the Chimney Rock Inn in Gillette, NJ. You are welcome to join us at 6pm for dinner before the meeting at a fixed price of $15/person (not including alcoholic beverages). There is no charge to attend the Annual Meeting, which begins at 8pm sharp. Dinner reservations are required—please RSVP to president@folkproject.org or text 908/872-6052, and be sure to list number of people attending.

At the meeting, elections will be held to fill open positions on our Folk Project Board of Directors. These include all four Officer positions (President, Vice President, Treasurer, and Secretary), plus three Trustees. The official Nominations Committee slate is presented below, and we will also accept nominations from the floor during the voting process.

Looking forward to seeing you there.

—Barrett Wilson, President, The Folk Project

2017 Board of Directors

The Nominating Committee for the 2017 Board consisted of Barrett Wilson, Lori Falco, Mike Agranoff, Jay Wilensky, and Deborah Graham as Chairman. We were charged with proposing the makeup of the 2017 Board of Directors for the Folk Project. Our recommendations are shown in the following paragraphs and table.

Trustees: There are nine Trustees on the Board serving rotating three-year terms. The three Trustees whose terms expire this year are Mitch Radler, Grover Kemble, and Allan Kugel. The Nominating Committee renominates Allan to run for a new three-year term, whereas Mitch and Grover have asked to step down. The Committee nominates Ken Brody and Evelyn McNally to serve for the other two three-year terms. Any FP member may nominate any other member to stand for election for Trustee. Contact Deborah Graham at deborahg88@yahoo.com.

President: Barrett Wilson is stepping down as President and offering to serve as Vice President. The Committee nominates Steve Humphreys to serve as President.

Secretary: Lindsey Meyer has asked to relinquish the Secretary position so that she can focus on the newly developing Archiving Committee. The Committee nominates Jay Wilensky to serve as Secretary.

December Evening o' Music and Holiday Jam

Sat., Dec. 10, 7pm • The North Pole
(a/k/a Steve and Christine Humphreys' house)
6 Penn Rise Court, Randolph NJ • 201/486-1366

Straight from the mouths of our generous hosts: "We are pleased as punch to host again and we'll have the holiday punch to prove it!" Steve and Christine will open up the doors at 7pm (an hour earlier than usual). Let's all bring snacks, beverages, and desserts to share. Your instruments and voices will make this the most wonderful time of the year.

Please remove your shoes upon entering or, alternatively, carpet friendly shoe covers will be provided upon request.

A Request from Christine

Hi, friends. It has been a joy working with so many of you organizing and planning those jam-ful, song circley, eat-drink-and-be-merry gatherings we have affectionately come to call "Evenings of Music" for the last two years. Many thanks go out to all the folks who have so generously shared their homes with us.

Sometimes, circumstances in the journey of life call for us to uproot and seek other shores. Such has been the case with many of our friends who once hosted the Evenings of Music. I call upon all of you to be watchful for opportunities to replenish our repertoire of locations so we can keep our special parties going. Do you have the itch to host an Evening yourself? We have held successful Evenings of Music at a Randolph restaurant that just happens to have the right configuration for our parties. Do you know of another eatery that might fit the bill?

Perhaps you belong to an organization with a clubhouse? Let's get creative folks! If you have an idea for a place to make music with one another, please share it with me. You can contact me at christine@christinedeleon.com or call me at 201/446-5387. I'd love to hear from you. May your 2017 be jam packed with health, happiness, and music!

—Christine Deleon, Event Hosting Chair

A Holiday Benefit Concert

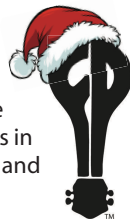

for The Morristown Unitarian Fellowship
Fri., Dec. 16, 7:30pm, Pre-Concert Caroling 7pm
Suggested Door Donation, $10 Minimum

The Folk Project's 2016 Holiday Benefit Concert will be on Friday, December 16, at the Morristown Unitarian Fellowship. The evening will be filled with fun, songs, and good cheer.

Hosted by the charming antics of Bob McNally, all will be delighted. The performers each contribute their own style to songs of the season, from the very serious to the seriously silly. The evening will delight and entertain all. Providing festive cheer for us in 2016 will be Ken Galipeau, Kathy Moser, Roia Rafieyan, Barrett Wilson & Frank Sole, and Clarum Sonum (a 20-member Choir based at the Boonton Elks Lodge #1405).

The festivities start at 7pm with participatory caroling. The Concert starts at 7:30pm.

The Beneficiary will be the Morristown Unitarian Fellowship. A minimum suggested Donation of $10 at the door is requested.

SWINGIN' TERN DANCES

Sat., Dec. 3: DOUBLE DANCE with Adina Gordon & Pete's Posse

Pete Sutherland: fiddle, piano, banjo, melodica • Oliver Scanlon: fiddle, viola, mandolin, foot percussion • Tristan Henderson: guitars, mandolin, jaw harp, foot percussion

Afternoon Advanced Contras 4–6pm $10/$5 students
All-Level Evening Dance 8–11pm $15/$10 students

Peter Piper picked a peck of pickled peppers,
Pete's Posse pleased a pack of tickled prancers;
Adina packed a Becket for seasoned steppers
Make the trek for wicked fun to take your pick of dancers.

Sat., Dec. 17: Donna Hunt & Grand Picnic

Jody Kruskal: Anglo concertina, percussion • Sam Zygmuntowicz: fiddle • Bill Peek: piano • Marco Brehm: bass • Michael Gorin: fiddle

Holiday Party after the dance at the home of Doug and Brian Directions will be at the dance

If you go down to Swingin' Tern one day, you're in for a big surprise,
If you go down East Hanover's way to contra and socialize,
For every bear that ever there was will gather in December because
That's the day the Teddy Bears have their Grand Picnic
Every Teddy Bear who's been good is sure of a dance that day.
There's lots of marvelous folks to meet and wonderful swings and heys,
With Donna calling contras so sweet, the band will sweep us off our feet,
And then the Teddy Bears host their Midnight Picnic.

Sat., Dec. 31: NEW YEAR'S EVE DANCE with Lisa Greenleaf & Brooklyn Swing Ensemble

The Minstrel

December 2016

Acoustic Concert Series

presented by

Note new 7:45 start
time

Concerts every Friday at the Morristown Unitarian Fellowship
21 Normandy Heights Road, Morristown, NJ
www.FolkProject.org • 973/335-9489 • Minstrel@FolkProject.org

Fri., Dec. 2: Chorus Song Night

An evening of songs for you—the audience—to sing. The singing will be led by these performers:

Karyn Oliver: of the band No Fuss And Feathers
Ken & Pat Rolston: with wonderful voices and fine harmonies
Dave Heistand: with a great collection of songs
Mike Agranoff: the Minstrel's Program Chairman and veteran songleader

Fri., Dec. 9: Open Stage (note early start time of 7:30pm)

This is an opportunity for all acoustic musicians to perform a 15-minute set on our stage, and for the audience to be treated to a diverse collection of acoustic musicians. We've often seen previews of our regular scheduled acts for the first time at Open Stage. For information on how to secure a performance slot, call 973/335-9489, or visit www.OpenStage.FolkProject.org.

Fri., Dec. 16: Folk Project Holiday Show (pre-concert caroling at 7pm)

The Folk Project is presenting a Winter Holiday Benefit Concert to raise money for the Morristown Unitarian Fellowship. The Fellowship has been the long-time host for our Minstrel concert series and numerous other Folk Project events.

The festivities will have something for everyone: soulful holiday ballads, traditional seasonal classics, choral arrangements, and even some original tunes. Sing along with performers Barrett Wilson & Frank Sole, Roia Rafieyan, Ken Galipeau, Kathy Moser, and Clarum Sonum (a 20-member choir), hosted by Master Elf MC Bob McNally. Arrive early and join Ken Galipeau who will be caroling in the Terrace Room. Suggested door donation: $10.

Fri., Dec. 23: CLOSED

No show this holiday weekend.

Fri., Dec. 30: The Kennedys with The Inspire Project

When not serving as Nanci Griffith's backup band, The Kennedys have been joyfully rocking the folk world with their own unique brand of high-energy performance. It's more than the powerful close-harmony singing. It's more than the hot guitar work. It's more than the driving rhythms and power chords. It's the obvious chemistry between Pete and Maura Kennedy that is so charming and so contagious that the listener can't help but grin and join in their fun.

The Inspire Project is the result of three powerhouse singer/songwriters joining forces to entertain, uplift, motivate, and come together in harmony. This collaboration is the long-held dream of Tanya Leah, who, along with bandmates Ilene Angel and Lorraine Ferro, compose the group. Each is a #1 hit songwriter and powerful vocalist in her own right. Determined to put some musical goodness in the world, these three talented women provide a unique blend of songs, stories, humor, and obvious friendship that draws in audiences and leaves them feeling uplifted from the experience.

UPCOMING: 1/6 Reeds, Rhythm and All That Brass with Bill Brandon; 1/13 The April Verch Band with Christine DeLeon; 1/20 Open Stage; 1/27 Tim Grimm & the Family Band with The Heather Pierson Trio; 2/3 Valentine's Day Extravaganza; 2/10 Open Stage; 2/24 Occidental Gypsy with Addie & Olin—Unleashed!; 3/3 Orrin Star; 3/10 Open Stage; 3/17 Spuyten Duyvil with Moss Henry & the Bryophytes

A New Place to Perform

Groov Cafe and Juice Bar on Valley Road in Montclair is looking for performers to play at its venue. Gregg, the manager, says he wants to promote good music, including country and western, jazz, and folk. He doesn't pay but puts out a jar for the musicians. If you are interested, visit www.groovcafe.com/contacts.

Pot-Luck Music and Christmas Party

Sun., Dec. 4, 2pm • Nancy and Tim's, Somerset

Nancy and I like to gather together some of our favorite people to sing together and play tunes together and hug each other a lot. Will you please join us? You don't need to know the words to any songs because we put out stacks of songbooks with lyrics to almost every song you've ever heard of. You don't need to be a good musician or a good singer.

Please come any time after 2pm on Sunday, December 4th to our house at 79 DeMott Lane, Somerset, NJ. Please bring a pot-luck contribution if you would like to dine with us. Please consider bringing a snack. It is best to park on the street. We hope you will come.

—Tim Weinrich

Surprise!—It's a Party

Sat., Dec. 17, 2016, 6pm–10pm • Morristown Unitarian Fellowship

Folk Project friends and family, please join Christine DeLeon and Mike Del Vecchio at MUF as they celebrate Christine's 50th Birthday. Bring your voices, ears, and instruments. Admission is free and all are welcome.

Oh, and it's a surprise party, so no one tell Christine (just kidding). Please, no gifts; the best presents will be your presence.

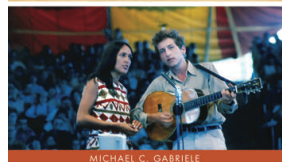

History of NJ Folk Music

A book is coming out this month that may interest our readers, presenting the 300-year history of folk music in New Jersey. It is titled "New Jersey Folk Revival Music: History & Tradition," and was written by Michael Gabriele, who has several other NJ history books to his credit.

NEW JERSEY FOLK REVIVAL MUSIC

HISTORY & TRADITION

A note about terminology: the author distinguishes between "folk revival music," the commercial, popular folk tradition, and the more academic study of "folk music," defined as an element of cultural anthropology. The book focuses on the former.

New Jersey has been home to numerous milestones that have shaped folk revival music as an art form. The book examines the evolution of folk revival music in New Jersey and its effects on local history and culture, as well as how it has changed lives—those on stage and those in the audience.

The book will be available beginning Monday, Dec. 5, and there will be a book-launch reception at the Nutley Museum on Friday, Dec. 9, at 7pm, featuring Ron Olesko as keynote speaker and Roger Deitz as special guest artist.

The Valentine's Day Extravaganza

Fri., Feb. 3, 2017 • The Minstrel

Have you always dreamed of singing on stage at the Minstrel? This is your chance!

You will be backed up by either a band, a guitar player, or you can play solo. We will assign spots on a first come, first served basis. So make up your mind soon!

Please submit your desire to participate to Valentines@folkproject.org starting at noon on Saturday, December 10. Rehearsal dates will be announced in the future. Please pick a song you are familiar with. For rehearsals, be prepared with sheet music or send a link to a YouTube clip.

Good o' the Order

*A place to share news with your Folk Project Community about memorable events and challenges.
Please send items to Joanne Cronin, joannelcronin@optonline.net*

Barrett Wilson says it's been a great two years being Prez and now it'll be a great two years not being Prez, but it was a great opportunity and a growth experience, and he's now ready to move on.

Tom Taylor missed the Halloween show because he was at the hospital with his daughter who had gall bladder surgery. Everyone's okay.

Grover Kemble says Thank you to everyone on the Board. He has been a trustee for four years, enjoyed it, and learned a lot. He is also moving on to take care of other life issues, but will miss everybody and will stay in touch and see how he can help the group moving forward.

Lois DeRitter: Her Unitarian congregation is having Spook Handy at a service and performance on November 20th. Service at 10am, concert at 3pm.

Olga Alvarez: for Hispanic Heritage Month, she and her husband Gerry did a presentation on the history of the song "Guantanamera" at the Elizabeth Historical Society on October 15. The presentation is up on YouTube.

Liz Pagan has dusted off her shingle and is once again a freelance graphic designer for print and web. She is also available for copywriting and editing. Email lizpagan@verizon.net.

Mike Agranoff reports the bad of the order, that he passed a kidney stone, and the Good of the Order, that he has two concerts back to back; the Minstrel with John Forster on November 4th and a house concert on Saturday, November 5th, in Millburn.

Mark Schaffer reminds everyone about the Lil' Rev workshop and house concert November 19th. Bring your instruments and make a day of it. The afternoon workshop on Leadbelly starts at 2, then a dinner break for pizza and Chinese food, and the evening is a concert by Lil' Rev followed by jamming until Jeff Loy gets tired.

Pam Robinson will be at NERFA the weekend of November 11–13 and at the national Folk Alliance International in February.

Elizabeth Lachowicz won't be at the annual board meeting because she'll be either in Mexico or Chicago (or both).

George Otto has started looking into retirement communities for his mom in Pennsylvania. If anyone has any recommendations, please let him know.

Deborah Graham just started a new job. She'll be working for Merck through a staffing agency—a three- to six-month contract with possibility of more. She'll be training in Conshohocken, PA, for a few weeks, but most of her work will be from home.

Joanne Cronin is spending the weekend before Election Day visiting old friends in Binghamton.

A Request from Elizabeth

Are you or anyone you know looking to unload your old reliable automobile? Once again one of our kids (my Thomas being the youngest of our collective brood of 5–7), is looking for an old, dependable, USED car, understanding that cosmetics are not as important as safety and function. Of course, we know that it's old so anything could go wrong—but hasn't so far and to the best of your knowledge you'll let us know if there are any issues, and once sold—sold it is.

Please keep your eyes open for us; thank you very much.

—Elizabeth Lachowicz

Folk Project Board Meeting • November 1, 2016

Board Meeting: The Summary

The meeting of the Board of Directors was called to order at 8pm at the home of Allan Kugel and Cecilia Rowedder in Highland Park.

Present: Kathi Caccavale, Joanne Cronin, Lois DeRitter, Grover Kemble, Allan Kugel, Elizabeth Lachowicz, Lindsey Meyer, Chris Riemer, Jay Wilensky, and Barrett Wilson (officers and trustees); Mike Agranoff, Ken Brody, Christine DeLeon, Lori Falco, Paul Fisher, Deborah Graham, George Otto, Mitch Radler, Pam Robinson, Ed Roffman, Mark Schaffer, and Leigh Walker (committee chairs). Absent: Pat Brangs, Mike Del Vecchio, Bob McNally. Guests: Olga Alvarez, Sandy Jackson, Barbara Moo, Tom Taylor. The October minutes were approved, and Chris reported that our finances are in fine shape.

OLD BUSINESS

The board voted to accept the Nominating Committee's slate of candidates for 2017. Nominations will also be accepted from the floor prior to the election at December's membership meeting. Please join us at the Chimney Rock Inn on Dec. 6 (see details elsewhere in this newsletter). Our board meetings are always fun but the annual meeting really swings. Come on out!

The Workers' Compensation Committee presented its final report and recommended retaining our workers' comp insurance. The board voted to accept the recommendation, and Lori will begin working with insurance agents familiar with workers' comp. Even though we have no paid employees, NJ law presents enough ambiguities that we decided it's prudent to continue coverage. We extended a huge thank you to the five committee members, who went above and beyond on this difficult legal issue.

NEW BUSINESS

We voted to spend $800 to subsidize Pam Robinson and Bob Safranek to attend the Folk Alliance International (FAI) in Kansas City in February. They'll learn better ways to produce FP events and will scout for performers for Special Concerts and NJ Uke Fest. We already provide certain subsidies for board members to attend NERFA (Northeast Regional Folk Alliance), which is affiliated with FAI.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

Membership chair Eddie suggested a software purchase for the new chair, which grew into a discussion about the possibilities of storing data on a shared secure server, FileMaker cloud hosting, or something similar. Currently, committees such as Membership, Getaway, Minstrel, and Swingin' Tern maintain separate databases, making info sharing difficult. We'll pursue this in 2017.

Mark reported a very successful fall Getaway. They received the best survey response ever, with over half of attendees responding. A big hooray and thank you to all the volunteers who make Getaway possible.

The Cubs are up 7-0.

Minstrel Staffing chair Deborah reported several new volunteers, a welcome response to her pleas for help. The Halloween show produced an estimated $500 profit and featured a full schedule of seasonal music and poetry in addition to excellent donated food.

The meeting was adjourned at 9:33pm.

Next month's annual meeting will be held on December 6 at the Chimney Rock Inn, 342 Valley Road, Gillette. The $15 prix fixe dinner will begin at 6pm, followed by the meeting at 8pm. Both are open to all FP members. For more information, please contact Lindsey at secretary@folkproject.org.

One good song with a message can bring a point more deeply to more people than a thousand rallies.

—Phil Ochs

Treasurer: Chris Riemer's term as Treasurer is expiring at the end of this year, but he has agreed to serve as the Treasurer in the background, and Mike Agranoff has agreed to serve as the acting Treasurer who will run reports for the Board and attend the Board meetings.

Minstrel Volunteer Staffing: Deborah Graham will be resigning her position as Volunteer Staffing Chair, and the Committee nominates Peter Glenn to serve in that position.

Electronic Communications: Lori Falco has agreed to continue heading up Electronic Communications, but the position will no longer be a Board position.

Membership: Eddie Roffman has asked to step down in 2017, and the Committee recommends Joanne Cronin to take the position.

The 2016 Board of Directors will elect all positions at the Annual Meeting on December 6.
