Let Your Voice Be Heard!

Folk Project 2013 General Membership Meeting Tuesday, 12/3
Dinner 6:30pm, Meeting 8pm

All Folk Project members are invited to attend and participate in our upcoming Annual Meeting on Tues., 12/3 at the Chimney Rock Inn, 342 Valley Rd., Gillette. Everybody is invited to share dinner prior to the meeting at 6:30pm, at a fixed price of $15 per person (not including alcoholic beverages). There is no charge to attend the annual meeting, which starts at 8pm. If you plan to come for dinner, please RSVP asap to Elizabeth Lachowicz, president@folkproject.org.

At the meeting, the Board of Trustees and board positions for the coming year will be elected. The official Nominations Committee slate will be published next month. We also accept nominations from the floor. In fact, we'd be ever so delighted to entertain any and all nominations.

Consider This ...

Bringing YOUR perspective, creativity, skills and talents to The Folk Project community and Board of Directors.

HELP WANTED — Two Board of Directors Positions: The Folk Project needs a volunteer to Chair the Publicity Committee for 2014 and another to be a Trustee. If you want more info and/or are interested please contact Elizabeth Lachowicz, president@folkproject.org or (908) 230-2280, or Mike Agranoff, minstrel@folkproject.org or (973) 335-9489. Thank you for your consideration of these opportunities to be of service.

The Minstrel Acoustic Concert Series

November 2013 presented by

Fri., 11/1: Jim Hurst, Jake Klar

For decades Jim Hurst was known in the bluegrass and country music world as the go-to guy when you needed a blazing hot guitarist as a side man or in the studio. This year, the International Bluegrass Music Association (IBMA) has nominated him for his third Guitarist Of The Year title. He is one of those rare finger-pickers who can carry a lead line alongside the best of the flat pickers. But after a successful career as a support musician, he's broken out as an exciting solo artist, showing that he can sing and write as well as he picks. Opener Jake Klar is an appealing young singer-songwriter with a good grounding in traditional folk and blues. His writing often has a bluesy feel to it, but is not the sum total of his repertoire. His stage persona projects good energy, and he is most engaging with the audience.

Fri., 11/8: Open Stage

This is an opportunity for all acoustic musicians to perform a 15-minute set on our stage, and for the audience to be treated to a diverse collection of acoustic musicians. We've often seen previews of our regular scheduled acts for the first time at Open Stage. For information on how to secure a performance slot, call 973-335-9489, or visit www.FolkProject.org/Minstrel/OpenStage.

Fri., 11/15: John Forster, Honor Finnegan

John Forster obviously fell asleep one too many times as a child to the sound of his Tom Lehrer albums. This is evidenced by his twisted sense of humor, his delightfully skewed view of the human condition, and his prodigious skills as a pianist. His songs have a knack for taking the plausible but improbable, and leading that to its implausible but inevitable conclusion by way of unlikely rhymes, horrible puns, and ironic satire. John is a very funny man. Opening is Honor Finnegan. We saw Honor back in July as one of the "Falcon Ridge Most Wanted Tour." She has been making a splash on the regional folk scene with her original songs, which employ elements of musical theatre, humor, traditional folk, and poetry. She accompanies herself on ukulele.

Fri., 11/22: Ronstadt Generations, Ron Renninger

Representing five generations in North America, Ronstadt Generations continues the family tradition with Michael J. Ronstadt (brother of Linda) and his sons, Michael G. and Petie. Multi-instrumentalists and solo performers in their own right, they present an exciting repertoire that preserves the traditional Southwestern and Mexican songs of their heritage while offering innovative original material. Their rich harmonies are supported by outstanding guitar and cello accompaniment. They have toured and recorded with Linda Ronstadt, Los Lobos, Dixie Hummingbirds, David Bromberg, and many others. Superb picking and distinctive vocals are woven seamlessly around well-crafted and powerful songs. With an easy-going rapport and an obvious joy from performing, opener Ron Renninger leaps across a wide range of musical genres, lightly touching down in some rather surprising places. Ron is a longtime Folk Project member.

Fri., 11/29: A Blast from the Folk Project Past

On Thanksgiving Friday, with distant family home for the holiday, we present four members of the Folk Project family who have drifted from the fold: Jean Farnworth: A founding member of Project 21 (The Folk Project's early '70s predecessor) with a beautiful and distinctive voice accompanied by harp and 12-string guitar. Bill Hall: Also from the Project 21 era, and member of the seminal band Frostwater. Writer and singer of beautiful dreamy songs with a distinctive guitar style. Claire Reynolds: High energy swing and bluegrass singer. A natural-born performer who owns the stage from the moment she steps upon it. Liza & AJ: Long an integral part of the Project's musical community until relatively recently (2001), their original songs and classy covers feature Liza DiSavino's guitar and horn, and AJ Bodnar's soaring voice and great piano chops.

UPCOMING: 12/6: Chorus Song Night featuring Hillary Foxsong, Rachel Streich, Scooter and Mike Agranoff; 12/13: Open Stage; 12/20: Closed; 12/27: The Shockenaw Mountain Boys; 1/3: John Flynn, Reggie Harris

The Minstrel is an acoustic music concert series run by the Folk Project, a non-profit folk music and arts organization. We use the facilities of the Morristown Unitarian Fellowship, 21 Normandy Heights Road, Morristown, NJ. We hold shows almost every Friday, year round, and the second Friday of the month is usually an open stage/audition night. The music we present is "folk" music in its broadest sense. That is, in addition to traditional American and ethnic "folk" music (in its purist definition), we welcome music of contemporary, primarily acoustic songwriters, and other types of music more folkie in attitude than in content. Shows start at 8pm; dress is casual. We serve coffee, teas, and baked goods. There is no alcohol or tobacco on the premises. Admission is inexpensive; on our regular Friday concerts we ask $8.00 on your way in and, if you feel the show was worth it, an additional amount at your discretion on the way out, which goes to supplement what we pay the feature performer. Children 12 and under are free. For travel information or information on shows, call (973) 335-9489 or visit our website at www.folkproject.org.

A Folk Project Special Event

RONSTADT GENERATIONS

TRIPSON ROOTS & AMERICANA
Y LOB TUCSONENEBB

Canciones de mi padre Workshop Sat., 11/23, 11am–2pm, Rockaway

Join Ronstadt Generations – Michael J. (Linda's brother) and his sons, Michael G. and Petie -- as they narrate and demonstrate the colorful music and history of their storied family. Dating back five generations to Federico "Fred" Ronstadt in the 1800s, music was and remains inextricably intertwined with their lives, reflecting their mixed Mexican, Southwestern and German roots.

Bring your instruments and voices as the Ronstadts explore the century-plus range of styles: polka, mariachi, huapango, classical, folk, early rock and the diverse original songwriting of today's generation. Participants will be invited to share their family music histories and traditions as well, time permitting. Handouts will include lead sheets for chords and lyrics.

$25. Reservations can be made via e-mail to concerts@folkproject.org or tickets can be purchased at The Minstrel every Friday night. Any questions, call (908) 229-1214.

Pelvis Burlapp

Yes! I'm back. As you no doubt know, I have spent a considerable amount of time squid-hunting in Siberia. I'm sorry to say, the information that led me on this journey was apparently incorrect, or at least unsubstantiated. So here I am, squidless in Secaucus, but ready to solve your every problem, and answer queries Siri never solved.

For those new to this journal of folkdom, I am Pelvis Burlapp, of the Blue Earth Burlapps, expert in 57 areas of expertise, including tire rotation, mental didacticism, venial archeology, and pork. I can help you with the social graces, the musical dilemmas, and the muscle pains of seniorcism. So, let me dig into my mailbag for the most pressing problems that have progressed prior to my preturn.

Hmmmm. It seems I have the most considerate of readers. Since the mailbag is empty, it must mean you have held back, or perhaps solved your problems on your own, as a way of allowing Pelvis time to enjoy his journey without distraction or untoward complications. Well, I certainly am ready to help you now, so send your questions to pburlapp@aol.com.

In the meantime, let's pause during the season of Thanksgiving to give thanks for the little things that are so important:

I am thankful to have seven normal-looking toenails.

I am thankful my jaw is hinged in such a way that I can close my mouth without having to use my hands.

I am thankful that cheese has paper between the slices, and not the other way around.

I am thankful that the uke is the latest craze, and not the bagpipes.

I am thankful that bees don't speak Yiddish, as far as I can tell.

I am thankful that Thanksgiving falls on a Thursday this year.

I am thankful I live in the Garden State, and not the Appendix Scar State.

But most of all, I am thankful for you, the Folk Project community! Have a wonderful holiday!

Folk Project Board Meeting • October, 2013

Board Meeting: The Summary

The Folk Project Board Meeting was called to order at 8:01 at the home of Allan Kugel and Cecilia Rowedder in Highland Park, NJ.

Present were: Rachel Streich, Nancy Kelner, Allan Kugel, Pat Brangs, Eddie Roffman, Barrett Wilson, Pam Robinson, Lois DeRitter, Lindsey Meyer, Grover Kemble, Mike Agranoff, Elizabeth Lachowicz, Joanne Cronin, Lori Falco, Leigh Walker, Mark Schaffer, and Bill Henderson. Absent: Mike DeVecchio, Scooter Ferguson, Bob McNally, Joe Graziano, Jean Scully. Guests: Cecilia Rowedder, Dave Sherman.

ADMINISTRATION: September Meeting minutes were accepted without corrections.

TREASURER'S REPORT: Bill reported that there is an additional $2,000 in Festival revenues from PayPal that has not yet been posted to QuickBooks.

OLD BUSINESS: Our next meeting, scheduled for 11/5/13 at Pam and Bob's, falls on Election Day, so it has been moved to the following Tuesday, 11/12/13.

NEW BUSINESS:

JOB OPENINGS: Mike A. volunteered to chair the Nominations Committee to recruit new Trustees and fill upcoming vacancies on the Board as of the new year. Pat, Mark, Lois, and Elizabeth volunteered to be on the Committee. We have someone willing to take over as Newsletter Editor, but are still looking for a Publicity Chair and Community Services Chair.

ANNUAL MEETING: Our December annual meeting, open to all FP members, has in previous years been held at the Chimney Rock Inn, in Gillette. Attendees pay $15 for their meal, with the FP picking up the balance of the tab. We will do this again this year. Eddie volunteered to organize this year's event.

COMMITTEE REPORTS:

FESTIVAL: Mark reported that 125 people have registered as of today; we need 140 to break even, and 150 is the cut-off. He visited Crossroads Camp, about 5 minutes from Camp Bernie, as a possible location for Spring 2014. It has a dedicated dining hall and separate concert hall, which is being renovated starting in October. We have no contract yet with Camp Bernie for Spring 2014. Mark will organize a trip for interested FP'ers to look at Crossroads in November; date TBD.

PUBLICITY: Pam, our FaceBook page maven, ran some interesting statistics: the 55-64 age group, who make up 3.5% of FB's usership, constitute 40% of the people who "like" our FB page; the 45-54 age group, who make up 7.2% of FB's users, account for 26% of those who "like" us. OTOH, the 25-34 age group, who make up 26.6% of FB users, make up only 7% of those who "like" us, and the 18-24 age group, who constitute >25% of FB users, account for only 5% of those who "like" our FB page. Clearly we have some work to do to appeal to those younger age groups.

MEMBERSHIP: The Committee met on 9/10/13 to come up with ideas to attract and retain members, and to revamp the membership dues structure. After some lengthy discussion of the Committee's written report, a motion was made to accept their recommended new dues structure, effective January 2014: $25 for one person or $30 per family; members choosing the eNewsletter option will be entitled to a $5 discount. The motion carried with a vote of 15 Yeas, 3 No, and 1 Abstention.

MINSTREL BOOKING: The Frank Vignola show on 9/6/13 was "packed," said Mike A. As a result of his and Elizabeth's meeting with MUF representatives last month, our rent has been rolled back from $319 a week to $280; it will go back up to $319 next July. Mike offered to hold our September Open Stage in the Terrace Room so that MUF could use the Sanctuary for their Rosh Hashonah celebration; we earned a lot of goodwill with MUF because of that. The show on the Friday after Thanksgiving will be a "Blast from the FP Past," featuring former FP old-timers Jean Farnworth, Bill Hall, Claire Reynolds, and AJ Bodnar and Liza DiSavino.

The meeting was adjourned at 10:10 pm. Next meeting will be on 11/12/13 (SECOND Tuesday), at Pam Robinson and Bob Safranek's, in New Providence.

Good o' the Order/ Community News

This is a place to share news about memorable events and challenges you have faced in the past month with your Folk Project Community. Please send items to Barrett Wilson, bighim04@yahoo.com

Elizabeth Lachowicz is recently returned from a two-week trip with the two Toms of her life. The 3K mile trip included Michigan's Upper Peninsula, The Railroad Hall of Fame in Galesburg, IL, and a stop in Elizabeth's home town of Chicago.

Jim Gardner is recovering well from his recent surgery, and has gone back to work. Congratulations Jim!

Sandie Reilly lost her father-in-law in August. She also recently spent ten glorious days coaching para-cyclists in Chicago, and had a wonderful, satisfying time doing it. And lastly, having driven half way (almost) across this great land, her car is up to 196K! That magic 200 is right around the corner...

Grover Kemble is working on producing a CD for a young, local jazz pianist - Teddy Comora - check him out on You Tube - the kid is great! And kudos to Grover for being involved with and promoting local music talent!

Mark Schaffer is in love with his new status as Granddad. He has also recently unearthed a copy (audio only — they didn't have video back then?) of the 1983 Minstrel skit titled "The Minstrel of Oz." Many a great memory is contained therein. Ask him next time you see him....

Cecilia Rowedder has had a tough year at work, and is really looking forward to her upcoming vacation in Mexico! And from the "Time Marches On Department," she's recently realized ALL her several kitties are now SENIORS!

Leigh Walker is going home (right now!) to watch the Reds/Pirates game. So there...

Eddie Roffman recently participated in a memorial service for Phyllis Heistand, a long-time Folk Project member who died recently of complications from MS. The service was packed, and Eddie reported seeing many other Folk Project people in attendance.

Rachel Streich's mother, recently relocated from California, has moved out of Rachel's apartment and into her own digs. Rachel is enjoying having her own space again, while having the option of dropping in on Mom most any time at all.

Department of Back-Patting

After Frank Vignola's full-house performance at the Minstrel last month, I had e-mailed him asking for a bit of paperwork necessary for our records. His response:

"I am sending today. Thanks again for everything and just let me know the next time. I love the Minstrel!!!!!"

Frank"

Rest assured, Frank the feeling is mutual

Mike Agranoff, Program Chair

SWINGIN' TERN DANCES

Sat., 11/2: Harvest Hoot with Ted Crane, Brooklyn Swing Ensemble

Contras & Swing Dancing 8 - 11pm at our regular admission price
Sam Zygmuntowicz – fiddle, mandolin; Danny Elias – clarinet, dumbek;
Bill Peek – piano; Marco Brehm – bass; Joe DePaolo – percussion

Would you like to swing like a star,
Carry music home in a jar,
For a great time come as you are,
Or would you rather be a tern?

A tern is a dancer with smiles on his face,
His feet always keep up the pace,
He has Brooklyn Swing to give him hot tunes,
With Ted calling contras for many moons,
So if you've got energy and time to burn,
You'll find you'd rather be a tern!

Ted Crane will be calling contras to the swing infused music of Brooklyn Swing Ensemble. Interspersed throughout the evening will be swing couple dances.

There will be a Swing workshop by Ken Crawford at 7pm and a Beginners' Contra workshop by Ted Crane at 7:30pm.

Sat., 11/16: Ridge Kennedy, Beaver Lake Trio

Bill Quern – fiddle, mandolin, banjo; Sarah Gowan – guitar; Ross Harriss – sax, whistle
Contras and Squares

Flaherty fosters fast furious fancy footwork for faithful feisty fanatics favoring flirtatious flowing fey figures. Fingerplay flaunts flawless fantastic fabulous fortissimos frequently facilitating fervent fearsome fiddle fireworks.

Non-dancing children must be supervised at all times.

Contra and Square Dancing to Live Music. All dances taught. No partner necessary. Beginners' workshop, 7:30pm; dance at 8pm. $10, $5 with student I.D. Soft soles only.
