March Home-Made Music Party

Sat., 3/8, 7pm • Steve & Christine Humphries'

6 Penn Rise Court, Randolph N.J. 07869 • 973-476-6792

New Start Time 7pm and Guest Featured Performer at 9pm

To accommodate our feature performer we will start an hour earlier at 7pm so we don't lose any playing time for our own music making festivities.

REMEMBERING PETE SEEGER with special guest SPOOK HANDY

Spook Handy first met Pete Seeger in 2003 and often spoke with him twice a month. They talked about philosophy, the founders of the nation, Lincoln, Native Americans, Woody Guthrie, Ledbelly, Martin Luther King, music theory, songs they were writing, etc., for hours. Spook and Pete played together over 50 times through the years. Quoting Spook, "I hope everybody who loved Pete or was touched by him even in the smallest way can find a way to get involved with a group of people and SING! Whether you sing soft or loud, sing with your heart. Don't worry about what your voice sounds like. Listen to the voices of others. Listen to the blend and how your voice contributes to the mix. Encourage those around you to join in. Disarm their fears by welcoming them into the circle. This is one of the best ways to nurture community. SING!"

Spook Handy's performance will start at 9pm and run about 45-50 minutes. After his set, we will continue our own music making!

There is no admission charge as this is a benefit of your membership in the Folk Project. Members and guests are welcome. Folk Project membership forms will be available for those smart enough to figure out it's a no-brainer to join!

NERFA is Coming to Town

NERFA (the Northeast Regional Folk Alliance), Sanctuary Concerts, and the Folk Project, are co-sponsoring a 1-day music conference in Chatham—the first of its kind in New Jersey—Saturday April 5th, 9am-7pm at the Presbyterian Church, 240 Southern Boulevard Chatham, NJ.

If you're a musician, come for the day. You can register at www.NERFA.org. You can also apply for a showcase opportunity there.

If you simply love to hear great music, come to the afternoon showcase from 4:30 to 7pm. You'll get to hear ten of the best musical performers in the northeast, selected by a panel of local judges. Featuring workshops, networking, and juried-artist showcases, this NERFA One-Day Mini-Conference is designed to give artists, presenters, DJ's, agents, and others engaged in the folk music scene a taste of the opportunities, excitement, and FUN that take place during the annual NERFA conference each fall.

To volunteer, call Wendy Keilin at (732) 828-8770, or email Volunteers@TheProsperousArtist.com.

For detailed information, go to the Folk Project website at www.folkproject.org.

Fri., 3/7: Andy Cohen with Low 'N Lonesome

Since forever, Andy Cohen has been a serious student, preserver, and performer of the acoustic country blues traditions from the '20's to the '40's. The fact that he is a kick-ass fingerstyle guitarist and stride piano player hasn't hurt that effort. Besides the standard 6-string flat-top, he also plays resophonic guitar, banjo, and the Dolceola (a zither-based keyboard instrument). He combines his performance skills and knowledge base to present a show that is at once highly entertaining and informative.

Opens Rob Adkins and Phil Drum are two fine acoustic guitar players and songwriters from Saratoga Springs, NY. As Low 'N Lonesome, they play tasty fingerstyle blues & ragtime music. They perform originals, as well as fingerstyle-based versions of tunes from old school jazz, rock, folk, and country music, covering artists from Robert Johnson and Louis Armstrong to Hank Williams and Bob Dylan.

Fri., 3/14: Closed

Due to a national conference being held at the Morristown Unitarian Fellowship on the weekend of March 14-16, the building will not be available to the Minstrel this night. Next Open Stage will be April 18 (not the usual 2nd Friday).

Fri., 3/21: Legends of the Celtic Harp

Fronted by famed harper and storyteller Patrick Ball, this trio of premier Celtic harpers takes you deep into the myths, magic and fabled history of this most captivating instrument. Besides the harp, bandmember Lisa Lynne plays mandolin and bouzouki, and Aryeh Frankfurter plays cittern and nyckelharpa (the Swedish keyed fiddle). Seamlessly integrated with the music, Ball weaves tales from another age when the harp was indeed an instrument of magic.

Fri., 3/28: Orrin Star with Robin Greenstein

Orrin Star is an ex-Winfield Champion flatpicking guitarist as well as a mandolinist. He applies those talents to bluegrass and Celtic classics, swing tunes, novelty songs, some originals, and a wide variety of other music. He's also a charming and very funny guy on stage.

There are precious few traditionally oriented performers who have also been finalists at the prestigious Kerrville Songwriters' Festival. Opener Robin Greenstein is one such. She is also a fine guitarist and banjo player.

UPCOMING: 4/4: Jack Williams, The Levins; 4/11: The Bucky Pizzarelli/Ed Laub Duo, Grover Kemble; 4/18: Open Stage (not the usual 2nd Friday); 4/25: Spuyten Duyvil, Robinson Treacher; 5/2: OCEAN Celtic; 5/9: Open Stage; 5/16: Zoe Mulford; 5/23: CLOSED (FP Spring Acoustic Getaway); 5/30: Rich Deans & The Rainmakers, Sydney Kayne; 6/6: John Gorka, Nalani & Sarina; 6/13: Open Stage; 6/20: Liza & AJ, Spook Handy; 6/27: The Boxcar Lilies, Oakes & Smith

The Minstrel is an acoustic music concert series run by the Folk Project, a non-profit folk music and arts organization. We use the facilities of the Morristown Unitarian Fellowship, 21 Normandy Heights Road, Morristown, NJ. We hold shows almost every Friday, year round, and the second Friday of the month is usually an open stage/audition night. The music we present is "folk" music in its broadest sense. That is, in addition to traditional American and ethnic "folk" music (in its purist definition), we welcome music of contemporary, primarily acoustic songwriters, and other types of music more folkie in attitude than in content. Shows start at 8pm; dress is casual. We serve coffee, teas, and baked goods. There is no alcohol or tobacco on the premises. Admission is inexpensive; on our regular Friday concerts we ask $8.00 on your way in and, if you feel the show was worth it, an additional amount at your discretion on the way out, which goes to supplement what we pay the feature performer. Children 12 and under are free. For travel information or information on shows, call (973) 335-9489 or visit our website at www.folkproject.org.

The Name of the Rose

A rose by any other name would smell as sweet—Shakey the Spear

As reported in the minutes of the February Folk Project board meeting (see page 10), there have been some name changes in the works that will take effect in March. Here are the details from the chairs of the appropriate committees.

Folk Project Acoustic Getaway (née Festival)

If a rose came hidden in packaging labelled "Kentucky bluegrass," you may pass it by when shopping for, say, an anniversary gift. The word "festival" is misleading to the outside world—the prospective guests who keep our event vibrant and healthy. Festivals are street fairs, or huge outdoor concerts held in fields. We are a 150-person gathering, focused on listening, learning, and participating. We chose the new name "Folk Project Acoustic Getaway" to better communicate a sense of this very special weekend. But feel free to use "the F word." For those of us who already know and love it, it's still our "Festival."

—Acoustic Getaway Chair Mark Schaffer

Home-Made Music Parties (née Evenings of Music)

Folksters, in order to stir things up and accurately portray our twice monthly music parties, we are changing the name for the Evening of Music. Starting in March, the name will henceforth be titled, "Home-Made Music Parties." Additional changes will include a 7pm start time as well as featured performers. Look for more information with the monthly listing in our sensational newsletter produced by our new newsletter editor George Otto. Thank you.

—Internal Affairs Chair Dave Sherman

Folk Project Special Concerts Presents
A House Concert with Marc Berger
 Saturday, April 19, 2014, 7:30pm Suggested donation $15
 Rockaway, New Jersey

We ran into Marc Berger at NERFA last Fall and were immediately impressed by his music and energy. His songs are extremely well crafted, and his lyrics paint a vivid portrait of the American West.

This house concert is an introduction to Marc and his music in advance of a larger multi-media presentation in the works for later in the year. He is currently testing the project in larger theaters, and we are looking for an appropriate venue with high-def projection capabilities in our area.

So, take this opportunity to experience Marc's music in a rootsy, stripped down configuration. Think of it as an appetizer... More info at folkproject.org. Questions? Call 908-229-1214 or email concerts@folkproject.org

Folk Project Special Concerts Presents
The Sycamore Slough String Band
 Saturday May 10, 2014, 7:30pm

21 Normandy Heights Road, Morristown, NJ 07960

$15 advance, $20 door tickets available at folkproject.org or Fridays at The Minstrel

The Sycamore Slough String Band is the brainchild of our friend David Gans, host of the nationally syndicated radio program The Grateful Dead Hour and co-host of SiriusXM Radio's Grateful Dead channel program Tales From The Golden Road.

The SSSB take the songs of The Grateful Dead and strip them down to their roots with tasty acoustic jams, sweet harmonies, and a deep love of the material.

They have been touring around the west coast for a few years and were a featured act on one of Bob Weir's TRI Studios webcasts. After a year of pestering, poking, and prodding David, I was finally able to talk them into heading out here for their first ever east coast shows! David and the boys are friends with a great many hot musicians in the area so you never know who might show up to sit in. We're still working on a possible opening act so stay tuned for more info.

Details at folkproject.org. Questions? Call 908-229-1214 or email concerts@folkproject.org

Folk Project Board Meeting • February, 2014

Board Meeting: The Summary

The February Board Meeting was called to order at 8pm at Steve Humphrey's house in Randolph, NJ.

TREASURER'S REPORT: 2013 books have been finalized, except for one $25 invoice to be paid. We lost approximately $1292, but our Vanguard investment value increased by $8,000.

OLD BUSINESS

INSURANCE: New Certificates of Insurance from our new insurance carrier have been sent to chairs of our various performance venues. Annual cost of insurance coverage for all FP events will be about $2575.

NEW BUSINESS:

Wendy Keilin brought it to our attention that NERFA (Northeast Regional Folk Alliance) will be doing a 1-day conference in NJ, on April 5, at Sanctuary Concerts' location in Chatham. There will be a music business conference for music venues, musicians, luthiers, etc, with workshops and a luncheon, followed by juried showcases (10 artists). The concert showcase will be open to the general public. Wendy would like the FP to co-sponsor the event to bring NJ area folkies together. FP members could be recruited to volunteer, and the FP could help publicize the event. Wendy would also like to record the event, either on audio, video or both. Scooter moved to co-sponsor, motion seconded and passed unanimously.

Dave Sherman, as Internal Affairs Chair, is changing the name of our monthly music parties from "Evenings of Music" to "Home-Made Music Parties," which he feels is more descriptive of the events. We also revisited Dave's motion, tabled from last month, to present a mini-concert or workshop before the jamming portion of the Home-Made Music Party. Performers would be drawn from both inside and outside the FP. Non-FP members would be welcome as guests or FP members but would be encouraged to join FP to continue attending future HMMP's. Dave is asking for a budget of up to $1,000 to pay performers over the next 12 months. Discussion ensued. A vote was taken—18 Yes, 1 Abstention. Dave has his performance budget.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

SOUND REINFORCEMENT: Mike D reported that the newly purchased wireless sound system intended to pipe concert sound out to the Lobby, has been tested and works as intended.

MINSTREL BOOKING: Two very big shows last month, resulting in a profit of $512 for the month. They had to evacuate the room due to a gas smell during Jean Rohe's concert. She missed her second set, but will be coming back March 2015.

FESTIVAL: Spring Festival registration is set to launch 2/15/14. Joanne Cronin came up with a new name for our semi-annual weekend event—it will now be called the "FP Acoustic Getaway," which is felt to be more accurately descriptive.

PUBLICITY: Paul is getting caught up. Our Festival (now "FP Acoustic Getaway") is listed in Acoustic Guitar Magazine's "50 Best" list, and Acoustic Guitar Magazine will be listing upcoming Minstrel events on their website.

MEMBERSHIP: A new membership dues structure will go into effect in March: $25/year for Individual ($20 for eNewsletter), $30/year for Family ($25 for eNewsletter), plus four levels of Premium Membership from $50/year up to $500 year, most of which is tax-deductible and includes gifts of DVDs of great performances from HSNOL.

Meeting adjourned 10:15pm. Next meeting on Mar. 4, 2014, at Bob McNally's home in Mt Tabor, NJ.

Winter Weekend is A-Comin' In

The Folk Project's wonderful Winter Weekend at the "Silos" in Wallkill, New York, will be from 4pm Friday, March 7, to Sunday, March 9, 2014.

This weekend retreat at a large, converted former farmstead has for years been attracting seasoned Jammers, singers and their helpful companions because of its comradery, excellent musicianship, low cost, and opportunity to break up the cold weather with song and story. Participants may stay at the Silos in their own bedding (contribution $35 + food dish for four) or stay at a nearby motel or just visit ($10/day).

More details are available on the Folk Project website under Making Music/Winter Weekend or at folkproject.org/community/weekendmusic.shtml.

Questions? Please contact

BobRosensweet@Folkjammers.com (Coordinator),

Good o' the Order/ Community News

This is a place to share news about memorable events and challenges you have faced in the past month with your Folk Project Community.

Please send items to Barrett Wilson, bighim04@yahoo.com

Pat Brangs escaped one of our big February snowstorms, travelling to Florida to celebrate her mother's 90th birthday. Pat says, "The weather was a treat, but celebrating the milestone event with mom was even better."

Nancy Kelner had a bit of excitement last month while working in her synagogue gift shop. A large glass panel unexpectedly shattered. Luckily, she was not standing directly in front of the case when it happened.

Lois De Ritter's daughter, Lauralynn, finished veterinary school AND passed her board exams! Lois said, "I am extremely proud and happy for her!" Lauralynn is planning to get married in September and is looking for a job in New England.

Joanne Cronin saw 'Waiting for Godot' on Broadway starring Ian McKellen and Patrick Stewart. Joanne says, "Ahhhh, it was superb, hilarious, it was Beckett, it was wonderful!" Joanne also recommends "The Storm King," Pete Seeger's two CD set of 'Stories, Narratives, Poems: Spoken Word Set to a World of Music.'

Dave Sherman remembers the first concert he ever attended, and also the first he brought his son to, was with Peter Seeger. Dave says, "We were lucky to have Pete. He led a great, long life!"

Wendy Keilin began playing ukulele at our Uke Fest last August and has now posted over 25 uku-lele videos on YouTube. To check 'em out, Google: 'YouTube Wendy Keilin.' Wendy and Fil Wisneski saw Steve Earle at the Capital Theatre in Port Chester, and Wendy is now a big Steve Earle fan.

Grover Kemble developed, produced, and stars in a new Jimmy Durante Tribute Show. The show premiered on January 28th; everyone loved it. Calling all Jimmy Durante fans....

Robin Schaffer has positive 'shoulder news' to share! It's been a rough 3½ months but with a recent cortisone shot her shoulder feels, "a hundred percent better!" She says, "It's great to feel like a human being again!"

Pete Seeger Memorial Sing

Sunday, March 2, 2-5pm

The New York Packet, singers of songs of the sea, will celebrate the life, music, and spirit of Pete Seeger. Pete Seeger worked tirelessly for the betterment of society and the environment. He felt that music was a powerful tool to influence his fellow citizens young and old. His spirit lives on and grows as people follow his humble but powerful lead in the fight for equal rights and to clean up the environment.

Many special musical guests with connections to Pete and the Clearwater have been invited. As Pete would want, everyone is encouraged to join in, not just a concert, a sing along! This is a "Free-will donation" event. All the balance after expenses will be sent to the Hudson River Sloop Clearwater.

The gathering takes place from 2-5pm, at the John St. Church, 44 John Street, in lower Manhattan, NYC. This event is co-sponsored by the Folk Music Society of NY (aka NY Pinewoods Folk Music Club). The closest subway stations are Broadway/Nassau (A & C lines) and Fulton Street (2, 3, 4 & 5 lines). John Street is one block south of Fulton Street.

Let's raise our voices together to honor this giant of a man who embodied the spirit of folk music and understood the power of song.

In Memoriam: Pete Seeger

May 3, 1919-January 27, 2014

"Participation! It's what my life has been about."—Pete Seeger

We lost a good friend on January 27. Pete Seeger, proclaimed A Living Legend by the Library of Congress in 2000, rejoined his beloved Toshi and moved on to teach the angels banjo. Some of us knew him personally. A lucky few had performed with him along the way. All of us in The Folk Project were touched by him. A little FP history: In the early '90s, the Project sponsored the publication of a Bob Franke songbook. Liza DiSavino was the music editor on that effort. Shortly thereafter, she proposed the Board sponsor an Environmental Songbook. After several months hard work, For the Beauty of the Earth, an environmental songbook to benefit the Hudson River Sloop Clearwater was published. Pete Seeger was involved in the work on that songbook. As a result of his contact with the Folk Project, he and Toshi became Lifetime

Honorary Members of the FP, and, to our surprise, he actually read the monthly newsletters, occasionally making some comment or contact about a specific article. He is still on our membership rolls.

Pete was a lot of things—singer, activist, writer, demonstrator, but he touched us all primarily because he always advocated Participation. He demanded, cajoled, encouraged his audiences to join in his songs. Passive, polite crowds were not his thing. With Pete, music was something to be experienced together, without a line between performer and audience. He wasn't the only sing-along performer, but he was certainly the most publicized. It became a norm for Folk music and spread across the culture.

So when we're at The Minstrel joining in a chorus, sitting in a circle at an Evening of Music, at Festival sharing the good times with friends, listen closely. There's an echo of Pete Seeger among the voices.

—Jim King

My mom took me to see Pete perform when I was 4 years old. My sister and I sat up front in a kid's concert at the Brooklyn Public Library. Pete sang out, having us, "Jump down, turn around, and pick a bale of cotton!" I remember jumping down, awestruck as his banjo 'frailed' the musical magic. I could feel the cotton in my hand, and the glory of his message. I've lived in awe of Folk Music ever since. Thank you, Pete!

In my teen and adult years, Pete was a moral beacon for us, singing and leading demonstrations against war, for equality, labor, and struggle for freedom. Pete didn't try to show off his singing or playing; instead he used his power to unite people in song, encouraging us to do it ourselves. He showed us that people and song could change the world. Blacklisted by the US government and prevented from singing on radio or TV, he sang for us at schools, summer camps and colleges, presenting his message of freedom and struggle. Pete's message will continue to resonate, but it's up to us now to keep singing it!

I don't know when the Folk Project decided to offer a lifetime FP membership to Pete and Toshi Seeger; it felt good to print a newsletter label for them every month. This month, we can no longer mail the newsletter, but please let us continue to say, "Thank you Pete," as we let our guitars, banjos, hammers, bells, and voices resonate together in justice, freedom, and love between our brothers & sisters, all over this land.

—Eddie Roffman

SWINGIN' TERN DANCES

March 1: DAN BLACK & MR. DARCY

Josh Burdic—fiddle; Adam Oleksa—fiddle; Kirsten Erwin—flute, whistles; Wes Steenson—guitar Contras

Dashing and debonair Dan deftly delivers delectable dances to delight and dazzle as Darcy's dreamy dulcet ditties devolve to dynamic driving downbeats.

March 15: LAURA WINSLOW & CONTRA REBELS

Henry Koretsky—fiddle; Todd Clewell—guitar; Barb Schmid—fiddle Contras

Laura wins our heart as she looks high and low to find the Contra Rebels. You might be a Contra Rebel ... if more than half your Facebook friends are dancers; if you plan your vacation schedule around NEFFA and SnowBall; if dance fliers outnumber family photos on your refrigerator; if you sleep eight to a room at Dance Flurry; if thrift store clerks where you buy your dresses know you by name; if your hashtag is #dancegypsy and you might be a Contra Rebel if you'd rather be at Swingin' Tern than anywhere else.

Non-dancing children must be supervised at all times.

Contra and Square Dancing to Live Music. All dances taught. No partner necessary. Beginners' workshop, 7:30pm; dance at 8pm. $10, $5 with student I.D. Soft soles only.

First Presbyterian Church of East Hanover Parish House • 14 Hanover Road, East Hanover, NJ 07936

From I-287 northbound or southbound: Exit 39, travel East on Route 10 for approx. 3.5 miles. Exit by the Ford dealership ("To River Road/Okner Pkway") onto Mount Pleasant Ave. Right at the second light onto Hanover Rd. then immediate left into the parking lot of the Parish House. From I-78: Exit 48 (Route 24 West) to Exit 2B, Route 510 East/Floerham Park. Go 1.9 miles and turn left onto Hanover Rd. Turn right into the parking lot of the Parish House just before the road ends at Mount Pleasant Ave. Additional directions are on our website.
