Strummin' With...

The Project is serious about house concerts—meaning serious about great music, fantastic fun, and a happy gathering of music lovers and music makers that you'll long remember. Two thrilling events are coming up in the "Strummin' with..." series. After a world-class house concert, audience members schmooze, jam, perform, and hang out with our featured performer. These concert/parties are fabulous, don't-miss events.

Sunday, September 16, at 2pm, is Strummin' with Toby Walker. Toby kicked off this series last winter with a spectacular afternoon of music. He's an internationally-acclaimed and award-winning finger-style guitar virtuoso and songwriter whose blend of blues, ragtime, country, bluegrass, old-time jazz, and rock. He's received numerous awards, including being the first place recipient of the International Blues Challenge Award in Memphis and the NY Music Award for best instrumental CD. Walker has also been inducted into the NY Blues Hall of Fame. Jorma Kaukonen of Hot Tuna and the Jefferson Airplane says you must hear him. We say come party with him, too. Register by going to tinyurl.com/SW-TobyWalker.

Sunday, October 28, at 2pm, is Strummin' with Mile Twelve. This fresh, hard-driving young band walks the line between original and traditional bluegrass and is quickly gaining praise and recognition in both folk and bluegrass circles. Sprung from Boston's Berklee College of Music and New England Conservatory, this exquisite and talented ball of fire has performed extensively throughout the U.S., Canada, Ireland, New Zealand, Australia, and Japan, headlining major concerts halls and festivals, including Grey Fox, FreshGrass, and the revered Joe Val Bluegrass Festival. Their music is in rotation on Sirius XM, and they are winners of the 2017 Momentum Award from Bluegrass Music Association. This house concert party will be fantastic fun and music. Register by going to tinyurl.com/SW-MileTwelve.

The "Strummin' with..." series is held at the happy home of Mark & Robin Schaffer, Getaway Chaircouple and FP Special Concert volunteers, in Rockaway, NJ. Admission is $20. Bring food and drink to share, and bring instruments to play with your friends and members.

Evening o' Music

Sat., Sep. 8, 8pm • Liz Pagan and Dave Kleiner's

32 Williamson Avenue, Bloomfield, NJ • 973/429-0288

Always a highlight of the EOM calendar, an evening at Kleiner/Pagan World Headquarters will feature fine music, singing, and listening, inside and (weather permitting) outside at the backyard fire pit. Please bring food and drink to share with your folkie friends; extra camp chairs would be welcome at the fire pit. See you there!

26th NJ Storytelling Festival

Sat., Sep. 15, noon–6pm • Howell Living History Farm

70 Woodens Lane, Hopewell Township, NJ • 609/737-3299.

Join talented tellers from throughout the tri-state area for a celebration of the oral tradition. Participate in a Story Slam on the theme "Chicken!" Folk Project member Ken Galipeau will be performing. Pre-registration required for the morning workshop on personal storytelling. More info at www.njStoryNet.org or www.howellfarm.org.

Astounding Getaway Facts

- Fact 1: The Getaway community is warmer and more welcoming than Grandma's chicken soup. Wherever we go, whatever we do, whenever we go away, the people we meet make all the difference. Getaway is filled with the warm, welcoming, and active, fun-loving people with whom you'll love to spend your weekend.
- Fact 2: Scientific research supports the theory behind Getaway's Get-Along Community. British anthropologist Robin Dunbar determined that 150—the number of guests at each Getaway—is the cognitive limit to the number of people with whom one can maintain stable social relationships. True!
- Fact 3: Global warming is good for you. Summers are hot and lazy. Everyone's on vacation. No one's planning ahead. Register for Getaway NOW! Don't get "sold out" in September.
- Fact 4: Acoustic Guitar Magazine called Getaway a Top 50 Roadside Attraction in the U.S.A. It's a national treasure in your backyard. It's time you found out why.
- Facts 5 thru infinity: The Acoustic Getaway is Friday to Sunday, October 5–7, 2018. It's a weekend vacation for $214, including food, lodging, three concerts, over 40 workshops and music activities—all indoors—plus learn and hang out with ten nationally recognized performing artists. For more information or to register, go to folkproject.org or call Mark & Robin at 201/207-8696.

Hold the Date—Jamming for Dummies

Sat., Oct. 27, 1:30pm • New Providence, NJ

This will be an all-instruments workshop by mandolin ace Don Julin. The theme will be "Everyone Can Improvise" and the cost will be $40. Open to anyone who plays an instrument. More details and registration coming soon.

The Minstrel

Concerts every Friday at the Morristown Unitarian Fellowship

21 Normandy Heights Road, Morristown, NJ

Fri., Sep. 7: Betsy Rose and the Chicago Fire with Rhonda Schuster

Betsy Rose, better known to fellow Folk Project members as Elizabeth Lachowicz, is the Folk Project's resident Blues maven. Her clear voice and saucy style are rooted in the sights and sounds of Chicago's toughest neighborhoods and rowdiest music bars. Betsy's brand of the blues is filled with life lessons, raw emotions, heartfelt sorrows, and playful innuendos. Her backup band, The Chicago Fire, is packed with some of the Project's finest musicians.

Rhonda Schuster, whom we discovered at our November OpenStage, is a new Folk Project member musician. She sings mostly her own songs with a blues influence and a powerful voice. Her song "We Might Never Feel This Way Again" was featured on Phoebe Snow's Something Real CD.

Fri., Sep. 14: OpenStage ($5 admission OpenStage only)

The Minstrel OpenStage is the place where a diverse collection of acoustic musicians performs for a welcoming, supportive, and attentive audience. We're a listening room, not a noisy bar. We've often seen previews of our regularly scheduled opening acts for the first time at our OpenStage. Admission is $5 at the door but is free for anyone under the age of twenty-five. (Free-will donations are encouraged.) For information on how to sign up to perform at our next Open Stage, visit www.OpenStage.FolkProject.org.

Fri., Sep. 21: Bill Staines with The Asthmatics

For just about as long as anyone currently involved in folk music can remember, Bill Staines has been the archetypical contemporary folk singer. People have been singing his songs on stage, in recording studios, and around campfires for over 30 years. He is responsible for such classics as "Roseville Fair," "All God's Critters Got a Place in the Choir," and "River," all with choruses that beg to be sung with. Come and see a true living legend.

The Asthmatics is a newly formed trio of Folk Project member musicians Todd Dennison, Carrie Cantor, & Mitch Radler. The group is blessed with three outstanding voices and two highly accomplished guitarists. And they blend these assets in wonderful renditions of the pop-folk repertoire of the '60s and '70s, sometimes faithfully replicating the original arrangements, and sometimes putting their own new slant on the songs.

Fri., Sep. 28: Beppe Gambetta with Peter Lister

Beppe Gambetta, the Italian bluegrass flatpicking champion, sounds like an ethnic joke, but Beppe is no joke. Early in life, he was captured by the music of such greats as Doc Watson and Tony Rice, and soon got to the point where he was sharing festival stages as an equal with his heroes. Equally adroit on mandolin, he can blaze through a hot bluegrass tune or croon a lovely Italian traditional ballad. And all with an elegant continental charm that is a joy to witness.

Pete Lister is a multi-instrumentalist, songwriter, and arranger from Newton, NJ. He's been pickin' guitar for 30 years and studied upright bass at the County College of Morris. His playing style is a practical blend of finger-picking and flat-picking with a solid rhythmic feel that is fortified by his bass playing. Pete likes to write in a variety of genres with lyrical content ranging from heart-felt to heart-broken to humorous.

UPCOMING: 10/5 CLOSED for the Folk Project Fall Getaway; 10/12 OpenStage; 10/19 Abbie Gardner with He Bird, She Bird; 10/26 Halloween Member Concert; 11/2 Magpie; 11/9 OpenStage; 11/16 The Shokenaw Mountain Boys; 11/23 Windborne; 11/30 Reeds, Rhythm, And All That Brass; 12/7 Chorus Song Night

Vance Gilbert in Concert

Sun., Sep. 23, 1:30pm • Borderline Folk Music Club
Nanuet Public Library, 149 Church Street, Nanuet, NY • $25

Vance Gilbert burst onto the singer/songwriter scene in the 1990's when Boston area folk clubs heard the buzz about someone who was knocking 'em dead at local open mics. Word of his storytelling sensibilities and his vocal and guitar chops spread to New York City and Shawn Colvin invited him to be a special guest on her national Fat City tour. He took audiences across the country by storm.

Vance became a favored opener for such artists as Aretha Franklin, Arlo Guthrie, and Anita Baker. In 2006 and 2007, he opened over 140 shows for the comedian George Carlin. Recently, he has been the opener of choice for The Subdudes and for comedian and actor Paul Reiser.

Gilbert has recorded 12 albums. His jazz roots make their way into songs with sophisticated melodies and harmonies and combined with his singing, playing and storytelling have made Vance an integral part of the national folk scene.

The Boston Globe says he is "that rare performer for whom people lean forward in their seats as eagerly between songs as they do during them."

Don't miss this rare opportunity to see and hear Vance Gilbert at Borderline. For more information, go to www.BorderlineFolkMusicClub.org.

2nd Hudson West Folk Festival

Sat., Sep. 8, noon to 9pm • Grace Church
39 Erie Street, Jersey City, NJ • $25 in advance, $30 at the door.

Jersey City again hosts the Hudson West Folk Festival in its historic downtown area. This all-day festival will include performances from both nationally-known artists and highly regarded regional acts.

In addition to live music, the festival will include free music workshops, vendors, and food booths. The lineup includes Harpeth Rising, Sunny War, Blue Yonder, Blackie Farrell, Stephane Wrembel, Evie Ladin & Keith Terry, Kirsten Maxwell, Vicki Kristina Maxwell, Scott

Wolfson, and Freedy Johnston. Tickets are $25 in advance, $30 at the door. Tickets and more information are available at the event website, www.HudsonWestFest.org.

The Hudson West folk festival is a nonprofit organized by a handful of longtime music presenters based in Manhattan and Jersey City who have come together to present their favorite performers. A festival with a different approach—the selected musicians are intentionally eclectic and cover a broad array of acoustic music ranging from blues, honky-tonk, Django Reinhardt hot jazz, contemporary singer-songwriters, and some artists with a bit more out-of-the-box sound (baroque-folk, anyone?)

The Hudson West Folk Festival is an indoor, rain-or-shine event with one hall dedicated to continuous music on two stages, and another hall that provides a bar, food, and vendors. Easily accessible by both the PATH train and by car.

Folk Project Board Meeting • August 7, 2018

Board Meeting: The Summary

The August 7, 2018, meeting was called to order at 8:05pm at stately Schaffer Manor.

MOTIONS

The minutes of the July 3, 2018, Board meeting, as amended, were accepted.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

Publicity: The Board complimented Chair Paul Fisher on his particularly comprehensive monthly report. Paul noted that the data contained in the report is compiled by John Lamb.

Pam Robinson made contact with two of the three winners of Falcon Ridge tickets offered in a sweep-stake open to new signups to Project mailing lists. She reported that they had a “fine time,” and that one would not have been able to attend FR otherwise.

Membership: Chair Joanne Cronin, to widespread applause, noted 19 new memberships in the past month. Ten arose from Uke Fest, and three others from the discount offered for membership by Morris Arts; three more joined to perform in the Birthday Show, and three from OpenStage.

Sound Reinforcement: Co-Chair John Mahon reported that Concert Window is now working well and that discussions with MUF concerning the sound-panels and other sound-dampening items are ongoing. Mike Agranoff reported that CW viewership, while small, is beginning to increase.

Horses Sing None Of It: Chair Sandie Reilly noted that HSNOL has recorded three shows with the new facility and equipment and that the audio quality is very good and the video “exceptional.” Several Board members suggested that the show’s opening montage should be eliminated or modified, and discussions will continue. Sandie encouraged attendance at tapings and noted that the room could accommodate 20–30 people.

OpenStage: Chair Mitch Radler reported that the July show was “terrific” and included many new faces. Mitch noted that new Project members are signing up from OS, and he has “big plans” for the fall, although he needs additional volunteers. Additionally [and importantly, sec’y], six OpenStage performers have been booked as Minstrel opening performers. And, Morris Arts has approved a one-year grant for OS.

Special Concerts/Uke Fest: Chair Pam Robinson reported that ticket sales and Fest plans are “moving along.” She noted the beautiful new Uke Fest logo and merchandise, designed by Yolanda Fundora. Pam noted that four ukes have been donated for the silent auction, and thanked McNally Strumsticks.

Minstrel Booking: Chair Mike Agranoff noted that average Minstrel attendance over the past year has been 67. He is working to put the proverbial “butts in seats” by having booked high-drawing performers Susan Werner, Cheryl Wheeler, and Tom Chapin, and is working on booking John Gorka and James Hill. Mike noted “poor participation” in this year’s Birthday Show, and plans to ask past regular participants to be available for next year’s.

NEW BUSINESS

Board Retreat: President Steve, with Dave Heistand and Elizabeth Lachowicz, are investigating holding a retreat for board members in the near future, including a professional facilitator, to address strategic planning issues and the ongoing issue of collegiality. While details remain to be formulated, the Board, in a straw poll, unanimously supported the concept.

ONWARD!

The meeting was adjourned at 10:07pm.

The next meeting will be held on Tuesday, September 4, 2018, at 8pm, at the home of Benevolent Potentate Steve Humphreys. All members are welcome; e-mail secretary@folkproject.org for directions and details.

Good o’ the Order

*A place to share news with your Folk Project Community about memorable events and challenges.
Please send items to Joanne Cronin, joannelcronin@optonline.net*

Mike Agranoff regularly attends a song session called Exceedingly Good Singing at the Jalopy Theater in Brooklyn, run by Ken Shatz, one Sunday a month. It’s about 80% a cappella, and 50% traditional. About 20–30 singers usually attend. This past Sunday was the tenth anniversary, it was jam-packed, and some of the best singing Mike’s ever been involved in. It was great! Mike adds that Diane Perry was on Main Stage at Falcon Ridge backing up Tom Paxton. Woo-hoo!

Elizabeth Lachowicz was in Chicago last month. Son Thomas drove down to Florida with friends, his first road trip. They went skydiving, and gun shooting, and lots of other things that Elizabeth can’t remember what she paid for. They all survived and returned in one piece. The new job is going very well, and she’s excited and grateful. Aaaaand the Boogie Band, and Betsy Rose and the Chicago Fire play Minstrel on September 7th, and she would love love love to see you and your loved ones there!

Jay Wilensky: Circle Round the Sun is opening for George Wurzbach on August 17th.”

Pam Robinson: FP member Todd Dennison participated in a tribute at the Falcon Ridge Folk Festival to all the people in the folk world we’ve lost in the last year, and it was great to see a Folk Project person as part of it. Kudos to Todd!

Mark Schaffer: Andrew Hines is getting a hip replacement. He expects to go walking with Mark when the pain is gone. Mark was at Swannanoa last week learning what a poor fiddler he is; he’ll be practicing like heck going forward. Thirty of Mark and Robin’s relatives went away to a Club Med for a week. Mark went on the trapeze with the kids and joked about being a tuna thirty feet in the air. It was a love-filled week. Robin Schaffer’s parents celebrated their 65th anniversary. Robin wrote her second song as an adult for her parents. She and Mark practiced for six weeks, and her performance drew happy tears. Robin is now a retired performer.

Olga Alvarez: She and husband Gerry Hazel went to the Newport Folk Festival, where Gerry got a spot in their open mike, “For Pete’s Sake.” He sang an original song that was very well received, and he’s excited about that.

Mitch Radler’s twin daughters, Molly and Dylan, are both going to be married next summer—one in June, one in September. Mitch will be accepting donations.

John Mahon will be at the Delaware Valley Bluegrass Festival on Labor Day weekend, helping Heidi Olsen teach a bluegrass jam class. This weekend he’s going to head up to Rhode Island and sit on Taylor Swift’s favorite beach. (She’ll be on tour, though.)

Dave Heistand has a new job—he started three weeks ago as a tech writer. It’s interesting and challenging, and he’s learning new things. Dave and Jean Scully made it to Falcon Ridge after the deluge and had a really good time.

Kathi Caccavale went to a wedding in Mexico at an all-inclusive resort and there were 90 people—the biggest wedding party the place had ever had, Kathi went parasailing there. Then, she went to a Vermont Music and Arts chamber music week and played very challenging music on the flute and recorders. Next week she’s going to Pinewoods to learn all she doesn’t know about early music, and she was at Falcon Ridge for the deluge—survived two wet nights camping.

Pat Brangs and Elizabeth Lachowicz went to Falcon Ridge and had a blast. They got some of the deluge but not all of it, and had a great time.

Sandie Reilly daughter Shannon got a loan and bought her first car. Son Matt is recovering well from his surgery and is getting strong—strong enough to pull in a 62-pound tuna last weekend in Maryland. The fish was almost as tall as he was, and the Reillys are expecting to be pretty tired of tuna and sushi.

Lois DeRitter reports that former FP president Larry Kaufman is going to be performing at the open stage this Friday—a first for him, with the exception of the Presidents’ Concert several years back. He has been writing parodies consistently and working very hard on improving his voice. Please come out and support him.

Steve Humphreys will be hosting a fundraiser on Sunday, September 23, for congressional candidate Mikie Sherrill at his house. He has also taken two pro bono cases of families that were separated at the border due to the zero-tolerance policy. These families have been reunited, and he will be representing them in their quest for asylum and residence in the United States. <Applause!>

Joanne Cronin went to Philadelphia at the end of last month to visit an old friend from library school. She had a great time.

Green Light Music Series

Studio Yoga Madison is happy to announce the acoustic Green Light Music Series. Experience live music in an intimate venue, up close with the performers.

Sun., September 30, 2018 • 4–5pm

Andrew Dunn

2 Green Village Road, 3rd Floor, Madison, NJ 07940
(opposite The Museum of Early Trades and Crafts)

RECENTLY BACK FROM COMPETING IN THE RENOWNED GRASSY HILL NEW FOLK CONTEST IN KERRVILLE, TEXAS, Andrew Dunn's songwriting talent seems to grow in the fertile New Jersey soil. His poignant wit and infectious melodies are staples of his canon of memorable story songs drawn from the everyday theater of life moments. Dunn's love for music began during his years singing in choir and playing trumpet in his school marching band, and in his late teens he discovered the acoustic guitar and songwriting. After a decade as a school music teacher, his latest CD, "House Above the Factory," reintroduces Dunn as a passionate stage artist and places an Americana shine on his unique panorama of day-to-day experiences.

Admission is $10/advance, $15/door. Join us for refreshments at the Nautilus Diner afterwards. For more information, visit <http://www.studioyogamadison.com/events/>, email staff@studioyogamadison.com, or call 973-966-5311.

Halloween Show This Way Comes!

Fri., Oct. 26, 7:30pm • At the Minstrel

The Folk Project will present the fourth annual special Halloween Concert the last Friday of October. C'mon all you enchanting, incanting costumed chanteurs and chanteuses! This is a show you will not want to miss! Come to our lair—I mean our inviting cavern of festivities and sound. You may hear of ghoulies and ghosties, long-legged beasts, and things that go bump in the night as well as a whole host of other grim, grisly, and gruesome songs (or not) sung by our firsties and favorites, big groups and small. This is one of our four delightful annual concerts featuring the Folk Project's own talented musicians. There will be a prize for the best performer in costume, so get creative, sign up, plan to show up to listen, join in and sing along, and perform if you so choose.

You don't have to be a performer to come in costume. Join in the spirit of fun, creativity, and Halloween, and come dressed to kill.

If you have questions or a song to sing, Contact Dara Diamant at Halloween@FolkProject.org
