The Valentine's Day Extravaganza

Fri. Feb. 1, 2019, 7:30pm • The Minstrel

Here's the chance for Folk Project members to sing a song of love (or love derivative), recite a poem, or perform a dance in front of your Folk Project friends at this wildly popular FP fundraising event. Perform solo, with friends, or backed up by the sophisticated Jazz duo "Frank and Hank" or our fabulous 10-piece Lovin' Hearts Club Boogie Band. There are a few slots left. Send your performance requests to cbukata@comcast.net.

Audience-written "Messages of Love" are read throughout the night by our valentine-trained Masters of Ceremony to enhance the mood (and raise some funds for the FP). Be ready to share the love and enjoy special treats and sweets at The Valentine Extravaganza! Admission: $12 for this special event. Snow Date: Fri., Feb. 8.

An Exciting Year to Getaway!

Team Getaway is making big moves to make your nationally-recognized weekend of music even better. New Site—New Date—Same Community—Same You!

Our new location—Stony Point Center in New York near the Tappan Zee Bridge—improves more than our comfort, lodging, food, concerts, workshops, jam spaces, and walking distances. It improves our Getaway. The layout and facilities will bring our community and music together as never before.

Our new date—a week earlier than before, so mark it down now: Friday through Sunday, May 17–19, 2019. Fall is still Columbus weekend in October.

Our old registration date—it opens on February 14th, National Getaway Registration Day, oh, and some other holiday that I suspect my health depends on remembering. Questions? Email getaway@folkproject.org.

Evening o' Music

Sat., Jan. 12, 8pm • Marie Trontell & Jay Wilensky's

1111 South Branch Drive, Whitehouse Station, NJ • 908/823-0363

Our hosts have multiple rooms for song circles and the only things missing are YOU and your instruments and voices. (Ok, we can use snacks, desserts, and beverages to share, too.)

Directions from I-287:

New Monthly Jam/Pot-Luck

Sun., Jan 27, 2019, 1pm • Elly Faden's Home

12 5th Street, Hazlet, NJ • elly.faden@folkproject.org

You are invited to a different kind of jam—more like a mini-workshop. Each person will provide a song, but we will take roles, such as rhythm guitar, lead guitar, percussion (optional), and singer. There can be more than one person per role. We will gently critique the song (not the players) and suggest how to improve it when we play it again. Each song will be played several times until we want to move on.

This will be a monthly gathering, held on the 4th Sunday of each month from 1–4pm.

Cliff Eberhardt House Concert

Sat., Mar. 2 at 7:30pm • The Schafferosa

A Getaway Benefit Extravaganza with Betsy Rose & the Chicago Fire

National treasure, supreme talent, and amazing performer Cliff Eberhardt is also a big Acoustic Getaway fan. To help ensure that our first Stony Point Getaway is the best one ever, he's performing a benefit house concert.

This is exciting. An artist of this caliber holds our "best 3-day music party ever" in such high regard that he is contributing his support and music at this important time in our 43-year history. He'll be backed up by another Project favorite, singer-songwriter and vocalist supreme Louise Mosrie.

Come join Cliff, Louise, Betsy, The Fire, and Team Getaway, not just for a great evening but to support a great cause: yourselves, your community, and your Getaway! Tickets are $25 and proceeds go to defray Getaway costs. Following the concert will be a rousing music party—bring your instruments, voices, and ears... along with some food or drink to share.

Cliff Eberhardt is an award-winning performer, recording artist, songwriter, and headliner of concerts and festivals. His guitar work with Richie Havens and Melanie and his Folk Project performances are legendary. His songwriting is exquisite. His compositions have been recorded by such luminaries as Richie Havens, Shawn Colvin, Buffy Sainte-Marie, and the folk supergroup Cry, Cry, Cry (Dar Williams, Lucy Kaplansky and Richard Shindell). On top of all that, he's a wonderful, warm, funny guy.

Betsy Rose is the Folk Project's resident blues diva. Her powerful and popular shows at The Acoustic Getaway and Minstrel Concert Series are legendary. Her band is the talented and devoted Chicago Fire. They will accompany her and support her in every way she sees fit.

Sat., Jan. 5: 35th Anniversary Dance with Contra Rebels

Swingin' Tern's home grown callers coordinated by Bob Isaacs

Henry Koretzky: guitar • Todd Clewell: fiddle • Barb Schmid: fiddle • Aaron Blouin: bass

The year was Nineteen Eighty-Four and Big Brother ensured there would be no enjoyment of the process of life. Risking arrest for thoughtcrimes, Swingin' Tern Dances burst on the scene to change this dystopia to a contropia. Tyranny turned to twirls and revolutions became swings. The Ministry of Truth became the Ministry of Fun and the Inner Party became the Party for All. Doublethink became double progression and $2 + 2 = 5$ was revised back to $2 + 2 =$ hands four. Now, 35 years later, we're still rebelling with Contra Rebels. Don't miss this, by George, Or well, you might just end up in Room 101.

Sat., Jan. 19: Peter Stix & Rhythmic Heart

Doug Healy: guitar, mandolin, djembe • Norma Castle: flute • Robin Russell: keyboard

Peter ferries us across the River Stix, past the Contra Cerberus, into a Hades chain. Like a danse macabre, we Dante up our soft soles in those infernal circle dances. Before you flatline, Rhythmic Heart will give you a beat for some contra coroners with tunes to wake the dead. Don't pay the ferryman until he gets you to Swingin' Tern. Then pass through to the other side, giving in to your demon desire to set the floor on fire.

Non-dancing children must be supervised at all times.

Contra and Square Dancing to Live Music. All dances taught.
No partner necessary. Beginners' lesson, 7:30pm; dance at 8pm. $12, $5 with student I.D. Soft soles only.

Fri., Jan. 4: Susan Werner with Zoe Mulford

It is a rare performer who covers all the bases the way Susan Werner does. She scores off the chart in intelligence, heart, instrumental and vocal chops, and enough charisma to make Radio City Music Hall feel like your local coffeehouse. She writes with the stylish craft of a Cole Porter and the spirituality of a Bob Franke. She plays sophisticated, effortless and perfectly tasteful accompaniment on piano and guitar. And she makes you feel a better person for having spent the evening in her presence.

Singer-songwriter Zoe Mulford plants one foot on either shore of the Atlantic, with homes in Pennsylvania and Manchester, England. She tackles the big eternal themes—love, death, food, laundry, etc.—with wit and honesty. Backing her clear vocals with guitar or clawhammer banjo, she serves up well-told stories seasoned with everything from old-time picking to Irish ballad, plus a dash of the blues. Her song "The President Sang Amazing Grace" has been recently recorded by Joan Baez.

Fri., Jan. 11: OpenStage (Admission: $10 general, $5 for age 21 & under, OpenStage only)

The Minstrel OpenStage is the place where a diverse collection of acoustic musicians performs for a welcoming, supportive, and attentive audience. We're a listening room, not a noisy bar. We've often seen previews of our regularly scheduled opening acts for the first time at our Open Stage. For information on how to sign up to perform at our next Open Stage, visit www.OpenStage.FolkProject.org.

Fri., Jan. 18: John Forster with Judy Kass

John Forster obviously fell asleep one too many times as a child to the sound of his Tom Lehrer albums. This is evidenced by his twisted sense of humor, his delightfully skewed view of the human condition, and his prodigious skills as a pianist. His songs have a knack for taking the plausible but improbable and leading that to its implausible but inevitable conclusion by way of unlikely rhymes, horrible puns, and ironic satire. John is a very funny man.

Opener Judy Kass draws in her audience with soulful vocals and genre-bending exploration of guitar and piano. Her 2014 debut album, "Better Things," and her 2016 CD, "Beyond the Ash and Steel," both appeared on the Folk DJ List of Top Albums for the years 2014 and 2016, respectively. A finalist in several songwriting competitions, Judy was recently named a Top Five Winner in the Singer-Songwriter category of the 19th Great American Song Contest.

Fri., Jan. 25: Joan & Joni

Joan & Joni is a musical tribute to Joan Baez and Joni Mitchell, performed by Allison Shapira and Kipyn Martin, respectively. Each of these singer-songwriters is possessed of a voice (and hair color) eerily reminiscent of that of their role models and was heavily influenced by their predecessors' music in their own writing. This show explores the music and history of these two seminal figures in contemporary folk from the '60s to the present. Sprinkled throughout the program will be occasional samples of Allison's and Kipyn's own writing as well.

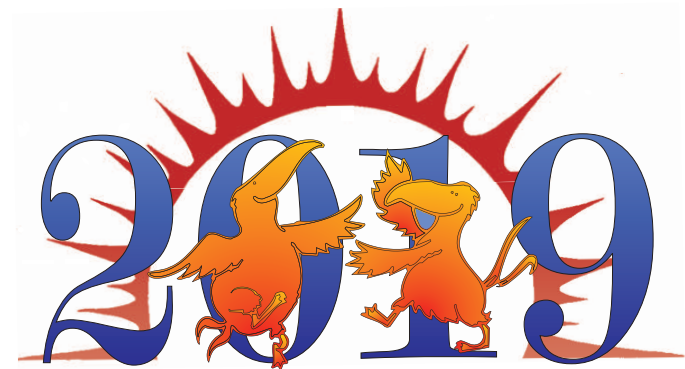

UPCOMING: 2/1 Folk Project Valentines Day Extravaganza; 2/8 OpenStage; 2/15 Quentin Callewaert with Russ Rentler; 2/22 Todd Dennison with Julie Parker Edelman; 3/1 Mike & Ruthy (of The Mammals) with The Asaran Earth Trio; 3/8 OpenStage; 3/15 The Murphy Beds; 3/22 Tom Chapin; 3/29 Phil Ochs Song Night; 4/5 Cheryl Wheeler; 4/12 OpenStage; 4/19 Del Rey with The Green Planet Band; 4/26 RPR

The Star Next Door Competition

The Roxbury Arts Alliance is celebrating its tenth season at the Investors Bank Theater in Succasunna. We want to celebrate by hosting our second vocal talent competition. We hope that you will join us by competing, voting online for your favorite semifinalist, and/or attending the final event at which the final 12 contestants will compete live. The RAA is offering over $2,100 in prize money to the top three finalists in a competition that will be completed during a special concert at the Investor's Bank Theater on Saturday night, March 23, 2019.

The competition begins with an application process starting on December 1 and running until January 18. A limited number of applications will be accepted and considered on a rolling basis.

The competition focuses on solo vocal performers; it is not open to full bands (although vocalists may be accompanied by up to three musicians). All styles of music are welcome, from folk to soft rock, jazz and blues, and everything in between.

Twenty semifinalists will be selected by three judges and their videos will be shared on Facebook. The contestant receiving the most "likes" on the Roxbury Arts Alliance Facebook Page will have a guaranteed place in the finals.

The Facebook videos will be posted from Saturday, February 23 through Friday, March 8. The 12 finalists will consist of the winner of the most likes on the Roxbury Arts Alliance Facebook page and 11 more chosen by the panel of judges. The finalists will be notified by email on Sunday, March 10, and they will compete on the Final Event on Saturday, March 23 at 7:30pm.

To be eligible for the cash prizes, those selected by the judges MUST perform on March 23.

For application and other participation rules, go to RoxburyArtsAlliance.org/the-star-next-door. "The Star Next Door – A Vocal Competition" is open to those 15 and over who live in New Jersey. Winners of the 2017 The Star Next Door Competition are not allowed to apply.

NJ Songwriters Circle Rides Again

Tue., Jan. 15, 2019, 7pm • Dave Kleiner's Home

32 Williamson Ave, Bloomfield, NJ • 973/429-0288

All who write songs, or would like to write songs, are invited to the rebirth of the New Jersey Songwriters Circle. We will pick up where we left off a couple years ago: shmoozing, sharing songs we're working on, and supporting each other's creative efforts. You don't need to play an instrument, and you don't even need to have a song to share.

Call 973/429-0288 or email daveythek@aol.com for more info. Follow our Facebook page, NJ Songwriters Circle.

Tracy Grammer Concert

Sun., Feb. 3, 2019, 3pm • Watchung Arts Center

18 Stirling Road, Watchung, NJ • 908/753-0190

Folk Project member Bob Cole will be hosting a concert with the wonderful Tracy Grammer and her friend Jim Henry, guitarist par excellence, at the Watchung Arts Center. Tickets and information are available through the Arts Center website or through Eventbrite. Suggested donation of $25 per person at the door includes a pleasant Valentine's Day Dessert Reception at the conclusion of the performance.

Tracy has recently released her new album "Low Tide" composed of original music, which is fast on its way to becoming a milestone on the contemporary Folk and Singer-Songwriter scene. Of course, her earlier work with the beloved Dave Carter will also be showcased in this performance. This concert sold out last year, and Bob would love to share Tracy's warmth and talent and Jim's legendary musicianship with everyone! For info or questions call The Watchung Arts Center or access their website at www.WatchungArts.org, or contact Bob Cole at 908/642-2439.

Roger Deitz Initiates FAI Blog

Few people can say they were there for the inception of Folk Alliance International. Folk Project member Roger Deitz is one of those people who has been witness to everything the organization has become over the past 30 years. A longtime folk musician and magazine columnist to Frets, Acoustic Guitar, Fast Folk, Billboard, and Sing Out!, Roger now has the distinction of being the first guest columnist on the Malibu Musings blog. Please enjoy this column from Roger full of musings and reminiscences of FAI's first meetings and conferences.

Deitz's Malibu Musings invites the reader to experience the magic and surprise of those first few years through his eyes. Maybe you weren't able to make it in the beginning—maybe you didn't know about it, or perhaps you weren't yet alive! This blog provides an insider's view of Folk Alliance International from its ambitious start.

Advance Minstrel Sales Update

In the November Newsletter, we announced that advance sales of admissions to the Minstrel would begin with the show of January 18. Subsequently, we have changed that start date. Advance sales will be available for the Minstrel starting with the Susan Werner show of January 4.

—Mike Agranoff, Minstrel Program Chairman

Newsletter: George continues to encourage careful proofreading BEFORE sending articles to the newsletter. He received thanks for setting up another successful annual dinner meeting.

Membership: We have 315 memberships, 491 people, down from last year's 350 memberships and 520 people. Joanne thanked Deborah Graham for her help throughout the year.

HSNOI: Big thanks to Andy Dunn from Sandie for his great help. They've wrapped 13 shows since July. Anyone can be in the audience for the taping of the shows in the beautiful new studio; contact Sandie to get the schedule.

Special Concerts: Pam had another successful year, including a stellar Uke Fest which also raised $1100 from a silent auction. A great close to the year is expected from the Tony Trischka concert on 12/8.

Publicity: Many changes in personnel. Paul Fisher is stepping down, and Elly Faden is the new nominee. Although new to FP she is not new to publicity and brings lots of new energy to the position. Lori Falco is stepping down from e-communications and Lisa Hallman is taking over. Kathi Caccavale has taken over Facebook from Pam.

Sound: John Mahon was thanked for another successful year of sound reinforcement at Minstrel. Couldn't live without him!

Archives: Lindsey is still searching for a permanent home for the FP archives, now temporarily at Rutgers; she has inspected their holdings and they are larger than she'd expected. She will be having more time to devote to this project after the spring.

After Steve H explained the board election procedures again, the annual meeting was adjourned at 9:56pm and the December meeting was resumed.

Election of the New Board, Officers, and Trustees: The full slate of nominees as printed in the November newsletter was elected.

The meeting was adjourned at 10:05pm.

The next meeting will be held on January 8, 2019, at the home of Robin & Mark Schaffer. All members are welcome.

Abbreviated GOTO due to operator error...

Elizabeth Lachowicz's son Thomas Lachowicz just finished his basic training and is now a Sailor.

Matt Reilly is top of his class in his electrical union for the second year in a row, says mom Sandie Reilly.

Jeff Loy just had hip replacement surgery, but is up and around already, albeit with cane assistance.

Jay Wilensky is recovering after cervical spine surgery, under the care of Marie Trontell. He is looking forward to playing guitar again.

Jean Scully had a cardiac catheterization and three stents put in. "New and Improved, now with Extra Parts!"

Care to Host a Board Meeting?

Have you ever wondered what goes on at the monthly Folk Project Board Meetings? You are always invited to attend. AND you are most welcome to host a board meeting in your own home and find out firsthand. We need a home that can fit about 24 people comfortably, with parking nearby, on the first Tuesday evening of each month. Please contact the FP President Paul Fisher at president@folkproject.org if you would like to attend and/or host a meeting. Hope to see you soon. Thank you for your attention and consideration.

Folk Project Annual Board Meeting • December 4, 2018

Board Meeting: The Summary

December monthly meeting called to order at 7:58pm at the Long Hill Tavern by President Steve Humphreys.

Present: Jean Scully, Dave Heistand, Steve Humphreys, Mark & Robin Schaffer, Bob McNally, Leigh Walker, Margaret Crawl, Dave Levenson, Mike Agranoff, Steve Wexler, Pam Robinson, Bob Safranek, Cecilia Rowedder, Chris & Judy Felton Riemer, Mitch Radler, Joyce & Gary Pratt, George Otto, Lindsey Meyer, John Mahon, Elizabeth Lachowicz, Allan Kugel, Olga Alvarez, Gerry Hazel, Lisa Hallman, Paul & Gloria Fisher, Lori Falco, Lois DeRitter, Todd Dennison, Christine Del Vecchio, Joanne Cronin, Kathi Caccavale, Ken Brody, Pat Brangs, Dara Diamant. Absent: Mike Del Vecchio.

Meeting began with a singalong, Homeward Bound. Bob noted it only took us 40 years to realize we should start meetings with music.

Steve explained the new procedure for voting using colored index cards, and the change in the voting process from years past, designed to clear up a previously somewhat arcane process.

Motion to amend the Article IV, Paragraphs 1 & 4, that FP president no longer must be a trustee as well. Motion carried.

Monthly meeting adjourned at 8:06pm, Annual meeting began.

President's Report: Steve's annual report covered financials, the state of our venues and 2017-18 board initiatives aimed at keeping FP healthy and growing in the years ahead, financially and emotionally. Highlights: Lori led the effort to upgrade our insurance. We changed the bylaws to make them conform to NJ State law. The past two years have been the best in ten financially. We are a nonprofit; our goal is to have fun and support our venues, not make a big profit. As 85% of our revenue comes from admissions, we must keep our venues strong. Strategic investments were made in a new studio space and equipment for HSNOI and making OpenStage its own venue, both of which seem to be paying off. Robin Schaffer is studying our e-mail usage and aiming for greater cross-pollination among venues that are now completely separate lists. Steve will be stepping down as Trustee due to family health issues. He was given a well-deserved standing ovation for his great guidance during his two years as FP president.

Paul Fisher, Prez nominee, hopes to continue to work on professionalism and collegiality, be more outward-looking, and bring in more people. FP must work to stay relevant and get a bigger presence in the Morris County Arts community.

Treasurer's Report: We're a lean, mean music machine. 2018 was okay, not as good as 2017, but we're in the black.

Getaway Report: 2018 was a great success, with some exciting changes coming in 2019, including a beautiful new venue at Stony Point, NY, one hour north of Morristown. Mark & Robin thanked the steering committee. Getaway's $3000 profit will be plowed back in to get even more wonderful performers and to continue building community.

Minstrel: Big slump in the first half of the year, but ended $602 in the black after a strong slate in the last 6 months. Mike is hopeful that a very strong slate in 2019, including booking Getaway favorites and initiating advance sale tickets beginning with Susan Werner on 1/4/19, will continue to build revenue, with Gary Pratt helming the advance sales effort. Concert Window earned $800 with half going to performers and half to Minstrel, an unexpectedly large windfall.

Swingin' Tern: Leigh thanked his large slate of stalwart volunteers who make the dance happen. Revenue was down somewhat this year, but several sponsored dances helped the overall bottom line.

Community Service: Highlights shared by Pat Brangs included several FP members volunteering to make music at a Memory Cafe in Morris Plains, for people struggling with dementia and cognitive issues, and a request for performers at a similar venue in Summit. Many cards for condolence, congratulation and get well were also sent.
